EXAMPLES Sewn, Vinyl, Dye-Sublimation

This example is one of a series of custom-made menus manufactured using Soljet solvent ink on a 19 oz. matte vinyl. The menus were finished with a small dowel sleeve with dowel inserted at the top and fringe along the bottom.

Heraldic Bannerettes are manufactured using 200 Denier Nylon Fabric. The offset stripes are equal in width but vary in length to create a dramatic effect simply by using color! Multiple color variations are possible. Use the Nylon Color Chart located on the side bar of the home page of our website: www.aristaflag.com

Dye-Sublimation printing on polyester fabric allows you to experience color like you've never imagined. Vibrant, rich full-process colors are sure to grab attention and get you noticed. Need to know more? email your questions or design concerns to: sales@aristaflag.com
